

THE SPIES SCHOOL

It was the first day of classes for the teenagers that were spies. They went to the school for spies. It was a wonderful place. It was huge! The teachers were professional and popular too. The academy was under the ground, so that the normal people didn't discover the school. The students could get there with a special code that they received by email.

There was a new student called Mary Williams. She was 16 years old, she was a teenager. She had light blue eyes and blonde hair. She was thin and tall too. She was intelligent, generous and friendly. She entered to the school very excitedly. She knew the director was Elisa Monthonty, the best spy ever found. As quick as she entered she made two friends, Emma and Sophie. Emma was very popular at school. She had brown hair and she was elegant. She was perfect. Sophie was a good girl. She was short and she was the fattest of the group. She had curly hair and she was intelligent. They gave Mary a very good welcome! There was Amelia too. She was a bad girl. She was perfect and popular all the time only because she was the director's daughter.

One day they were trying to stop a thief... They were in a spy car. The thief was trying to steal a mansion. It was their responsibility to defend the world. They used ropes to go through the roof and enter faster. They couldn't stop him because he was very fast and very intelligent. They put the people on risk. Amelia laughed at them and she told all the school the thing that happened. The director was very angry with them and the thief was still out there.

Four years later, it was the day that Emma, Sophie, Mary, Amelia and their friends graduated. Emma, Sophie and Mary were very sorry. Elisa forgave them. The girls told the policemen that they should catch the thief and they did it. The thief went to prison for that. The girls graduated and they were best friends for ever.
